Jesse Kiplinger, played by Jim McCann, kisses Muriel Tate, played by Laura Glasspool, during dress rehearsal for South Valley Civic Theater's production of "Plaza Suite," written by Neil Simon. "Two Suites" also includes "California Suite," which is being performed on alternate days. Hotel suites played a large part in the life of Neil Simon as he traveled the country writing and performing. In addition to the two plays SVCT is performing, Simon also wrote "London Suite" and "Hotel Suite." Performances at the Morgan Hill Community Playhouse, 17090 Monterey Road, will be offered, 8pm, May 26 and June 1 with a matinee at 2pm on May 26. "California Suite" will be performed at 8pm, May 25 and June 2, with a matinee at 2pm on June 2. Tickets are $15 general and $12 for students and seniors.
