This production is unique in that it has allowed not one but four new faces to sit in the director's chair for South Valley Civic Theatre. They come from all three of the South Valley cities, and all four share a background in community theater:

VISITOR FROM NEW YORK

directed by Charles Krahenbuhl

CHARLES KRAHENBUHL is making his directorial debut with SVCT, although he has appeared in its productions for over a decade. His local acting credits include leads in GCT productions of "1776," "Kismet," and "I Do, I Do!," and roles in "Sugar," and "The Music Man." He is a teacher, counselor, ordained minister and hot tub enthusiast.

VISITOR FROM PHILADELPHIA

directed by Suzie Chastang

SUZIE CHASTANG marks her first directing assignment after having spent last summer doing summer stock at The Barn Repertory Theater Company in Augusta, Mich. A Morgan Hill resident, she has appeared in GCT/SVCT productions of "Annie," "South Pacific," and "Company," and as Sonia in "They're Playing Our Song."

VISITORS FROM LONDON

directed by Chuck Myer

CHUCK MYER has appeared in GCT/SVCT productions of "The Music Man," "Jesus Christ Superstar," "Sweet Charity," "Fiddler on the Roof," "Charley's Aunt," "Two by Two," and "Rodgers & Hart," and in the pit orchestra for four other shows. In addition, he is a playwright, and has written a column on the arts for the Gilroy Dispatch for the last six years.

VISITORS FROM CHICAGO

directed by Jim Allen

JIM ALLEN is a veteran director who has directed over fifty shows in Hollister, during 18 years on the faculty at San Benito Joint Union High School. Prior to that, he did Shakespeare and worked off-Broadway as an actor for six years. He and his wife Elaine have a daughter, Jill.
