SVCT offered 6 unique productions this season, the most ever in a single year. Our shows appealed to every taste, from the rock musical Next to Normal, to a one man show Tru, to a fascinating comedy/drama, God of Carnage. The season was further enhanced by Mulan, an enchanting youth show and a teen production of Leader of the Pack, a musical smash. What was missing? We are rounding off the season with the wonderful family classic, Mary Poppins The Broadway Musical.

Mary Poppins has had a fascinating history as it progressed from the mind of author Helen Lyndon Goff (better known as P.L.Travers) to the screen, and now to the stage. Mary first appeared in "Mary Poppins and the Match Man" a short story in which Mary and Bert jump into one of his street chalk drawings for afternoon tea. Travers' biographer noted that the original Mary Poppins was not cheery at all. "She was tart and sharp, rude, plain and vain." Her personality evolved along with the story as the author wrote a series of four books about the family who lived at No. 17 Cherry Tree Lane.

After pursuing the rights to the story for 20 years (see "Saving Mr. Banks") Disney finally convinced P.L.Travers to allow them to make the movie. Disney understood that the key to success was to capture the essence of the characters and adapt them to a movie. For example, they needed a reason for Mary Poppins to come to the Banks family in the first place. They initially planned for Mr. Banks to be away at war, but instead made him emotionally absent. It was a story about a dysfunctional family, and in came Mary to heal them.

With the proposal for a stage musical, Travers allowed it to be made only upon her death, and in her will she insisted that only English born writers - no Americans - were to have a hand in the making of the musical. Some of the songs from the movie were changed significantly, scenes were deleted, characters from the books were brought back and inserted into the story (Robertson Ay, Miss Andrew, Mrs. Corry) and Mary was adapted to be more like the character of the book; a darker, mythological, egocentric Mary Poppins. The production had to finesse the challenge of being as much like the books AND as much like the movie as possible. It succeeded and was a smash hit on Broadway opening in 2006 running for 2619 performances.

SVCT's 48th season will begin with our young performers' production of Disney's The Little Mermaid Jr., opening September 30. And the season continues with our holiday production of the winning and heartwarming musical The 1940's Radio Hour.

Enjoy the show and please consider joining our theatrical family for opportunities to be on stage or back stage, and to become members. Help us continue our tradition of quality theater.

Kel is serving his 4th year on the SVCT Board of Directors and has been a Morgan Hill resident since 1999. For the past 7 years he has worked for Infineon Technologies and in 2012 became the Head of Purchasing for North America. Mary Poppins is his 12th performance with SVCT. These started in 2007 with the Music Man and recent performances include Fiddler on the Roof, Wizard of Oz, City of Angels and Oliver. For fun, Kel enjoys golf, tennis and teaches Zumba at the Centennial Recreation Center.

Paige Wilson - *Ensemble

Paige is a sophomore at Live Oak High School and this is her second show with SVCT, the first being Leader of the Pack. Besides her new love of theater she loves singing, dancing and special effects makeup. She would like to thank her family and friends for their support of her new interest in theater, and especially getting her to and from rehearsals!

Meet our Production Staff

Megan Griffin – Director

Megan is thrilled to be making her directorial debut with Mary Poppins! She would like to thank the incredible production staff for their inspiring dedication to the show. She would especially like to thank Michelle Griffin. It was so fun collaborating and working together. She hopes that if you take away anything from this production of Mary Poppins, it's that money isn't everything, and that time with your family is priceless. Enjoy the show!

Joy Reynolds – Assistant Director

Joy is excited to be a part of this incredible production and was beyond over "joyed" when the Director and Producers, asked her to join the team. Mary Poppins has truly been an amazing journey and experience. Joy feels the director's vision for the show has brought happiness and magic to the production. She has learned so much from working with this team. Joy has been part of SVCT since moving here in 2000. She would like to thank her two beautiful daughters, Jessica and Becca, for being so supportive while she fulfills her dream of being part of this production.

Tiffany Goller – Co-Producer

Tiffany is thrilled to be producing her 3rd show with her partner in crime Marianne! When she is not at the SVCT warehouse or theater, she is the co-owner of One80 Salon in Morgan Hill, where she has been a hairstylist for 27 years. Tiffany is also the proud mom of 3 boys and has been married to her high school sweetheart for 20 years. Tiffany would like to thank everyone for coming and hope you have a "Super....." time.

Marianne Snook – Co-Producer

Live theatre has always brought me so much happiness...from watching our three kids (Jessica, Ben and Becca) perform in grade school, Jessica student-directing in high school, Jessica and Ben performing in high school, Jessica directing in college, to our entire family being involved in SVCT. I have been a part of the production team on SVCT's Twelve Dancing Princesses, Shrek the Musical, Mulan Jr, Leader of the Pack, and now my dream-come-true show (the very first movie I ever saw at a theatre)! We are excited to share the magic that is...Mary Poppins!!

Jyovonne Montosa – *Choreographer

Jyovonne graduated Cum Laude from Santa Clara University with a Bachelor's Degree in Theatre Arts with a Dance Emphasis. She currently teaches Elementary and Middle School Drama, and Middle and High School Dance at Oakwood School. Over the past several years she has choreographed numerous musicals including South Valley Civic Theatre's productions of Oliver!, The Producers, and Leader of the Pack. She has also been choreographing and teaching dance styles such as ballet, modern, and contemporary to students from ages two to 50 at various schools and dance studios throughout the Bay Area for the past eight years.

Alan Chipman – *Music Director

Alan remembers standing in a line six blocks long as a child to see "Mary Poppins" when first in the movie theaters. He has loved this music since seeing Julie and Dick on the big screen 50 years ago. Alan is excited to share with audiences his 18th SVCT show. He has directed My Fair Lady, Into the Woods, where Anything Goes with the Music Man. Alan has enjoyed playing in a Big and Legally Blonde orchestra pit and acting with the Guys and Dolls, including Annie and a bunch of Damn Yankees in the City of Angels.

Lynette Oliphant – *Vocal Director

One of Lynette's favorite subjects is family. Another favorite is music. Mary Poppins is full of both. Lynette wishes to thank the directors and producers for giving her the opportunity to work on this fabulous musical. It has been a wonderful experience. The biggest thanks goes to her family for supporting her. May you all have a SUPER experience as well.

Michelle Griffin – *Costume Designer

Michelle has costumed many shows for SVCT over the past several years. She particularly enjoys working on the teen shows. She has had a great time working on Mary Poppins.

Melinda A. Brown M.D. "Mindy" – *Stage Manager

Mindy is a veteran stage mom having helped out for nearly a dozen of her daughter Riley's shows. This is her debut performance of stage manager, with past experience as house manager, ushering, wrangling and costume help. When she's not back stage she's a physician in Physical Medicine and Rehab. She hopes you have a supercalifragilistic time!

Lorraine Bell - Properties Mistress

This is Lorraine's eighth production as Prop Mistress and her third for SVCT, also this is her first show working with all four of her children! She solemnly swears by the power of hot glue and a little bling to transform a piece of cardboard into a sacred treasure. She wants to thank everyone in the show for the freedom to challenge the left side of her brain with much creative, magical impossibility. She appreciates the safe environment to use her tools of the trade, as glitter and fairy lights are frowned upon in meetings and libraries.

Tradition of the Gypsy Robe

Each SVCT production awards the "Gypsy Robe" to a chorus member who has made special contributions of time and energy towards the good of the show. The robe is presented to the recipient on opening night; the cast member puts on the robe and blesses the stage before the performance. It is then the duty of the recipient to affix to the robe a patch that signifies the show. The Gypsy Robe is then returned closing night to perform its duty for another show and carry on the tradition.

The Producers of
Mary Poppins
The Broadway Musical
are pleased to present the Gypsy Robe to:
