Later Life - Roles

South Valley Civic Theatre expects that all people, regardless of race, ethnicity, sexual identity, culture, age, gender expression, background, ability, economic status, education, credentials and experience have the opportunity to be engaged in our programming. We encourage all actors to audition.

AUSTIN: Male, late 40's- early 50's

Conservative, distinguished, and somewhat lonely; A Bostonian trapped in the rigidities of his upbringing; spent his life worried something terrible will befall him; timid to take risks.

RUTH: Female, late 40's- early 50's

Open-minded, breezy, quirky, and romantic; has had her share of bad luck and tragedy; in an addictive relationship with her divorced husband; leads a tumultuous life.

ACTOR 1: One male actor to play Jim, Roy, Duane, Ted, and Walt. Late 40's – early 60's

Jim, scruffy, philosophical, a former professor who can't stop smoking; Roy, a cantankerous retired athlete; Duane, a completely tech-savvy nerd; Ted, a frisky Southern gentleman; and Walt, Austin's gregarious, lifelong buddy.

ACTOR 2: One female actor to play Marion, Nancy, and Ester. Late 40's – early 60's

Marion, Roy's wife, proud grandmother, would rather stay at the party than deal with Roy; Nancy, a lesbian on the make; and Esther, Ted's boisterous Southern wife, delving into Yankee culture.

SALLY: Male or Female

Perky, playful host(ess) and matchmaker.
