Run For Your Wife

By Ray Cooney

Produced by arrangement with Samuel French, Inc.

The Play

The action of the play takes place in the home of John and Mary Smith in Winbledon and in the home of John and Barbara Smith in Streatham.

The two homes are represented by the single set and throughout the play the action frequently takes place in both homes at the same time but the inhabitants of each are, naturally, oblivious to the others.

South Valley Civic Theatre is pleased to be partnering with the Wild Rose House of Taste to present this dinner production.

Our congratulations to this show's "Gypsy Robe" recipient: Jonathan Bass. Thanks, Jonathan, for your tremendous efforts!

We hope you enjoy both the dinner and the show!

Cast

(in order of appearance)

Whitney Pintello McClelland - Mary Smith

Whitney is thrilled to be back on stage after almost eight years! Since her last role in Noises Off long ago, she's occupied herself by getting married, having two cute girls, teaching, directing, choreographing, designing sets, serving on the SVCT board, and starting her own decorative painting business. After 30 shows as an actor, and as many behind the scenes, her favorites are still the ones where you get to dye your hair, wear lingerie, and work with your family-in this show, all three!

Angela Doss - Barbara Smith

Angela has been involved with theater since childhood. Her most recent show was How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying where she played "Smitty". It has been a great enjoyment for her to work with such a talented and outgoing cast and wishes the best of luck to everyone.

Kevin Heath - John Smith

Run For Your Wife marks Kevin's second performance with SVCT. He's always been "that way inclined" when it comes to theatre and is an active participant "from way back". He's enjoyed many years with various theatre groups on both coasts. Favorite roles include the smarmy "David" in SVCT's The Foreigner, "Clive" in See How They Run, "Joe Hardy" in Damn Yankees and everyone's favorite nerd "Eldon" in Murder At The Sock Hop. Thanks to a talented and dedicated cast, director and crew for all the laughter and hard work. Also, many thanks to Albo and Jake for their patience and support!

Jon Reed - Detective Sergeant Troughton

When Jon and his wife Jan's two grown daughters left home to pursue their own dreams a few years back, he realized he had the time (sort of) to pursue one of his own: getting back into theater. Since then he has served on the SVCT Board of Directors, co-produced three plays and been in several. It's so much fun working (playing) with such talented and creative old friends and making new ones, says he. (Is it possible to get tired of laughing?)

Jonathan Bass - Stanley Gardner

Jonathan Bass lives with his wife and two children in Gilroy. He teaches fourth grade at Antonio Del Buono School, where his children also attend. Jonathan has also appeared as "Greg" in Relatively Speaking and "Ellard" in The Foreigner.

Bill Corneth - Detective Sergeant Porterhouse

This is the 31st local play Bill has appeared in, and the 5th time at Old City Hall, one of his favorite venues. He was in the first production SVCT did here, Neil Simon's Chapter Two, in 1989. Then a couple of months later he was in the first production Center Stage did here, Let's Murder Marsha. He last appeared in this cozy setting in 1999 when SVCT did Bleacher Bums. Since then Bill has been in The Secret Garden, Oklahoma, Ten Little Indians and How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying. Over the years when not in a show he's been a co-producer, Stage Manager, on the stage crew, running lights & sound, Prop Master, and Rehearsal Secretary. He is also a member of SVCT's Board of Directors.

Rod Pintello - Bobby Franklyn

Rod just completed a very happy role as "Alfred P. Doolittle" in SVCT's production of My Fair Lady, and he is pleased to be reprising the role of "Bobby" in Run For Your Wife. Most of all, Rod loves being reunited on stage with his daughter Whitney McClelland and this wonderful cast of friends.

Crew

Steve Spencer - Director (and Reporter)

Steve has appeared in numerous shows with South Valley Civic Theatre, and most recently played "Charlie Baker" in The Foreigner this past September. He has been a member of the SVCT Board of Directors for five years and served two years as President. This is Steve's first time directing an adult show and the wonderfully talented cast, able producers and terrific technical crew have made it a great deal of fun! Thanks to you all.

Alika Spencer - Stage Manager

Alika is a junior at Live Oak High School. This is the eleventh show she has worked on with SVCT. She loves the stage and working in all aspects of theater. When she's not entangled in theater, Alika enjoys spending time with her friends, drawing, reading and working on her computer. She is very excited about this show and hopes you enjoy it as much as she has.
