President's Message

Come to NARNIA with SVCT's young performers. NARNIA—a magical land frozen in eternal winter waiting to be rescued by the four children of Adam and Eve. Join the young adventurers as they join with Aslan, the Great Lion, to free Narnia from the power of the White Witch. As costume coordinator of this production, I have had the double pleasure of working with a wonderful cast of children and their parents, staff and crew as we transformed the playhouse stage into the Land of Narnia and the performers into its citizens. Everyone has worked very hard to make this a successful production, and I hope you agree that they have succeeded.

Our next show will be the timeless classic, Annie—opening May 19. Our 2006–2007 season will present the productions of 1776, California Suite/Plaza Suite, the teen production of School House Rock, the children's production of Treasure Island, and the family show—The Music Man. To guarantee that you will receive audition and performance notices, please add your mailing information to our mailing list. Sign up sheets are located in the lobby. I hope you will come and see these great productions. Your participation onstage or behind the scenes is encouraged and most welcome.

SVCT is a non-profit organization and all of our performers, staff, and support crew are volunteers. We exist through the support from you, the audience. In addition to attending performances, you can further support us by becoming members of SVCT. Membership, in addition to helping SVCT financially, brings additional benefits including discounted tickets and voting privileges at our annual "Members Choice" awards. Enjoy the show!

Notes from the Director

Recently, I was asked to voice my thoughts on the pros and cons of directing children versus adults. A loaded question, to say the least.

Children take more work. They must be taught everything, yet they come with open minds and are usually molded much easier than adults. Of course every cast and every situation is different. There is no definitive answer to the question.

There is one huge plus, however, to directing a children's production, and that is the parents, siblings, relatives and friends who jump on board. We have had an outpouring of support from so many for this production.

From the parents who have driven their children to and home from rehearsals, constructed costumes, made props, built and painted sets, sold tickets and solicited donations—to the relatives and friends who have simply stepped up and asked, "Can I help?"

This is what makes a children's production unique and powerfully positive. It is with this unified effort of all who helped that we present Narnia in the true spirit of community theater. —CAROL F. HARRIS
