Pirate Lore

Captain Kidd

Captain Kidd was given the ship called the Adventure Galley.

His mission was to rid the seas of pirates. Kidd's crew threatened mutiny if he did not turn to piracy. Kidd was forced to shoot one of the men to maintain control of his ship.

Eventually Kidd did turn pirate, and began plundering ships up and down the Malabar coast. Unfortunately for Kidd, many of the ships that he had plundered belonged to the East India Company, who had him arrested as soon as he returned to America.

He was then taken to London, tried, and hanged in 1701.

The Tradition of The Gypsy Robe

Each South Valley Civic Theatre production awards the right to wear the "Gypsy Robe" for the run of the show-- to a cast member who has made special contributions of time, and energy towards the good of the production.

The robe is presented to the selected recipient on opening night; they put on the robe, and bless the stage before the performance. It is the duty of the recipient to affix to the robe a patch that signifies the show. The Gypsy Robe is then returned closing night, to perform its duty for another show, and carry on the tradition.

The producers of Treasure Island chose two individuals this time. They are pleased to present the Gypsy Robe to:

Laura and Emily Doughty
