A message from SVCT's President

Rogers and Hammerstein's Cinderella first appeared on television in 1957, starring Julie Andrews. I was four years old when it was remade and it was that version that captivated my little-boy heart and imagination. It became an annual showing with children looking forward to it each year, and Lesley Ann Warren had to have been my first crush. It remains a sparkling fantasy of music, magic and romance, captivating audiences from overture to finale. I invite you to again allow yourself to get lost in Cinderella's plight beginning in her "Own Little Corner", moving to her fairy godmother's magic in "It's Impossible" and on to her romantic encounter with the prince in "Ten Minutes Ago." If you are too young to remember, then I encourage you to view our children's production with the most innocence and imagination you can muster.

This year South Valley Civic Theatre celebrates 51 years of serving the South Bay with live drama, comedy and musical productions. Our actors are your neighbors, our volunteers are your friends, and to many, we have become a theater family.

Cinderella is the first of our five productions being presented this season. Coming in November, the southern charm of Steel Magnolias will grace our stage. In February, our teens will present Rock of Ages. The spring brings Cabaret and our last show will return us to the fairytale world - this time with the story of The Beauty and the Beast. Tickets are available on-line at www.SVCT.org.

Lastly, if you are not already a member, I encourage you to consider joining us and supporting SVCT in this way. In addition to being ever-so thankful for your support, we hope that you will take advantage of the benefits of membership such as discounted tickets, cast fees, and more.

R. Scott Lynch

Director's Letter

Rodgers & Hammerstein's Cinderella is a timeless classic that transports its audiences to a world of magic where anything is possible, even for a girl with all odds against her. The sweeping orchestrations beautifully help tell this classic fairy tale. From the moment I signed on to direct and choreograph this musical, I knew this would be an incredible opportunity to create theatre magic for our local youth. The 1997 Walt Disney/Whitney Houston version of Cinderella was a film I grew up watching and the 2013 Broadway revival was my first Broadway musical. It is safe to say this piece of theatre had a tremendous impact on my life; I could not feel luckier to be directing this musical for SVCT. Creating alongside my mom, Susan, has been an experience I am extremely grateful for. She has done an amazing job teaching these young actors how to create harmonies and tell the story through music.

This musical would not have been possible without an entire team of dedicated individuals who are passionate about bringing high-caliber theatre to this area. First, I'd like to thank the producer, Ingrid, for her guidance and endless support throughout this journey. I would also like to thank the designers, builders, painters, techs, and all the volunteers for their contributions to this project. Thank you all!

I would not be the artist and person I am today without my grandparents, Doug and Janice Rees. They have supported every theatrical endeavor our family has participated in. From preschool church plays, to this musical you are watching tonight, their love and support for me has been constant and unwavering. I would like to dedicate this performance to them -- they are the reason I have the gift of music in my life. It is an incredible feeling to extend that gift through generations to the actors in this cast.

Thank you for your attendance this evening and supporting the local arts. I hope you enjoy the performance.

Ingrid Rottman – Producer

This is Ingrid's first time as a lead producer for SVCT. She is also a new member of the SVCT Board of Directors. You may have seen her on stage as the Rose Seller in Oliver! (2014), evil nanny, Miss Andrew in Mary Poppins (2016), Heidi Schuller in Follies (2017) Lily Hart in Act One (2017) and most recently in her dream of a lifetime role - the stage mother of all stage mothers - Mamma Rose in Gypsy (2019). The opportunity to produce the children's musical for SVCT came at a perfect time for Ingrid, as she just sent the last two of her five children away to college. She would like to thank all of the parents for lending her their extremely talented children for this production. They helped to soothe the sting of being an "empty nester" after 31 years of cleaning up after (I think she she means raising) children! Ingrid also has an extensive background in performing live music, currently as lead female vocalist to local classic rock band Probable Cause. She hopes you will all enjoy the magic of SVCT's production of Cinderella!

Daniel McDonald – Director & Choreographer

Daniel is thrilled to be making his directorial debut for SVCT with this wonderful cast of young artists. He's incredibly grateful for the opportunity to be on the creative team with his mom, Susan. Recently, he appeared as Edward Rutledge in last season's 1776: The Musical. As a fifth grade teacher in San Jose, Daniel is passionate about incorporating theatre arts and creativity into public education. His recent theatrical credits include: You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown (Director/Choreographer), Big River (Huck Finn), Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat (Joseph), and All Shook Up (Dennis). He has also enjoyed working in television/film (Disney, NBC, Netflix). Daniel would like to thank his family, friends, and Colton for their love and support throughout his directing and performing experiences.

Susan McDonald – Vocal Director

Susan is excited to be joining SVCT as vocal director for this wonderful production of Cinderella. Her music experience includes directing, arranging and composing music for youth choirs, ensembles, and soloists for the National Fine Arts Festivals. She's thoroughly enjoyed teaching this talented cast to harmonize and how to express themselves through music. Susan is thankful for the opportunity to collaborate and work alongside her son, Daniel. She'd like to thank her family for their ongoing love and support. Enjoy the production!

Lauren DeRosa – Production Assistant/Stage Manager

Lauren DeRosa had a "ball" getting to be a part of the magic of SVCT's production of Cinderella! This is Lauren's first time as production assistant, but she is no stranger to the backstage realm of theatre. When Lauren isn't onstage herself, she can be found behind the scenes doing whatever miscellaneous tasks need to be done: directing, stage management, costumes, makeup, ushering, set builds, house managing, and dozens of other odd jobs. She would like to thank her amazing production staff, particularly Daniel McDonald and Ingrid Rottman, for allowing her to have a hand at putting a show together; she couldn't have asked for better mentors. Lauren would also like to congratulate her cast for all of their hard work, as well as let them know how proud she is of each and every cast mate, especially Paige, her real life evil sister! Please enjoy "a lovely night"!

Staff Biographies

Adrienne Wilkinson – Assistant Producer/Costume & Graphic Designer/Property Mistress

When Adrienne was two years old she saw her first movie- Cinderella. Unfortunately, she had to leave the theater early because she could not stop crying after the stepsisters ruined Cinderella's beautiful pink gown. Even at the age of two she knew the importance of a great costume. Adrienne has gone on to costume many shows, most recently SVCT's Gypsy (which she also directed). Look for her on stage in SVCT's production of Steel Magnolias as Truvy. On this production she is grateful to work alongside Ingrid as her assistant producer and work with Kimberly and Mary Beth on costumes. Together "impossible things are happening everyday!"

Kimberly Lynch – Costume Designer

Kimberly has been an SVCT board member for two years and is delighted to be the co-costumer for Cinderella. She is proud to have performed in one of SVCT's earliest productions as "Nurse Kelly" in Harvey (1974). Her most recent involvement backstage for SVCT was as a costume assistant for Gypsy. Kimberly majored in theatre arts at Santa Clara University, and in addition to acting in productions there, also filled technical roles of property mistress, stage manager, lighting crew, and costume construction. She is most proud of the play she wrote while a student at SCU adapting Kate Chopin's novel The Awakening which was performed at the university, video recorded and aired on the local PBS channel. After college, she worked in Hollywood for five years primarily as a costumer in television and major film productions. In her free time from theatre she works as an attorney.

Jared DeRosa – Master Carpenter

Jared DeRosa: the man, the myth, the legend, the guy that says he will have nothing to do with the show, but inevitably commits to doing his very best to make each show as magical as it can be- Cinderella being no exception. This is his first show as master carpenter, but it is not his first time building overly elaborate sets. Whenever you see a 'DeRosa' in a show, there is a 99% chance that Jared built or had the idea for how to construct three-fourths of that set. Some of his most notable construction feats include Thoroughly Modern Millie, Annie Jr., Footloose, The Little Mermaid Jr., and many more. While Jared is extremely proud of his two daughters, Lauren and Paige, he blames them for his lack of a backbone and getting him to make this show as visually stunning as possible. Jared would also like to make it known that, "No, I will not be seen on that stage performing so please don't ask". Enjoy the show!

Dedication for Costume Donation/Bobbie J. Lynch

The costumes for Cinderella, the Prince, and all tiaras and crowns are donated to this production of Cinderella in the memory of Bobbie J. Lynch by her daughter Kimberly Lynch.

Bobbie taught her children, from her own little chair in her own little corner of the world, that it is through dreaming the most improbable of dreams and then daring to pursue those dreams with imagination, unwavering will and passion that we will discover nothing is impossible for the courageous dreamer! Bobbie loved butterflies for their power as a symbol of transformation. Butterflies have long been associated with the character of Cinderella (a courageous dreamer of the first order) and her Fairy Godmother.

Every butterfly on every costume you see tonight represents a dream Bobbie brought to being in someone's life and a life Bobbie transformed with her love, her hope, and her boundless generosity.

The Tradition of the Gypsy Robe

Each SVCT production awards the “Gypsy Robe” to one or several cast members who have made special contributions of time and energy towards the good of the show. It is presented to recipients on opening night at which time they don the robe and bless the stage before the opening curtain. It is the recipient’s charge to affix to the robe a patch that signifies this show. The Gypsy Robe is then returned closing night to await another show and to perpetuate its tradition.

The producers of Cinderella
are pleased to present the Gypsy Robe to:
